

Jacob Lincoln, CPA

Jacob Lincoln is a tax manager with CEA, LLP, a North County San Diego CPA firm specializing in middle market businesses and their owners. Jacob has the responsibility of running the tax department's day-to-day activities, staff development, continuing professional education, business development efforts, and reviewing complex tax returns and tax planning scenarios.

Jacob's expertise is business flow-through taxation, navigating the complex relationships between a business owner's corporate taxes and their personal taxes. Jacob has extensive experience with the following types of clients: restaurant and hospitality, manufacturing and distribution, biotech and medical startup, professional services, real estate, family businesses, and high-net-worth individuals.

Prior to coming to CEA, LLP in November, 2008, Jacob was a tax supervisor with CBIZ, San Diego for a total of six years. He was responsible for managing over 100 accounts and supervising a team of ten plus staff. Jacob was active in the campus recruiting and business development functions of the firm.

Jacob graduated with his Bachelor of Science in Accountancy from the University of Arizona in 2002. Jacob also received his Masters of Accountancy from the University of Arizona in 2003. Jacob is a California Certified Public Accountant as well as serves on the membership committee of the Corporate Finance Counsel of San Diego.